

Fig. 1. The shells of Limpets and chiton. (A) From left to right are the shell of Cellana toreuma, Patelloida striata and a chiton. (B) Both sides of the shell of Cellana toreuma. (C) Both sides of the shell of Patelloida striata. The inner side of the shell's edge of P. striata is occupied by a dark brown color.